

And So, But You

Litmus A Freeman

So like me
You're drifting up and down
So unsure
But deep inside so sound

And so afraid
Of letting others down
But so afraid
That you're the one who'll drown

Chorus:

And so you're down
The loop goes 'round and 'round
And up again
When you inside are found
And happy now
The truth is so profound
And being true
Is best for you and all around

And doubt sets in
When consciousness intrudes
But love you crave
And all the world approves

But what of them?
Not for you to prove
Except to you
And the life to which all this alludes

Repeat Chorus
