

In Our Bubble (I Vår Bubbla)

Litmus A Freeman

You can always be you with me
So sweet and naturally
In each moment where you are
Drink in pleasure from a jar
I hear you and you I see

Every moment of every day
I want to be with you and I want to run away
In the bubble that we share
An authenticity so rare
Together we write our play

Painting our canvas scenes
With colours from all our dreams
Like a bolt out of the blue
The terrifyingly new
Is washing past versions clean

Reflected in you is me
A vulnerability
A longing now awoken
Through our loving touch we've spoken
A message to you from me (in our intensity)

The hug that could last all night
Took me to colour from black & white
You said "I'll stay here for a while"
And warmed my inner smile
A passion we could not fight

The realness and rawness feel
Like this is a real deal
Not experienced before
Now it's knocking on the door
With a cosy, homely appeal

A home we are meant to be
Enjoying our harmony
Where our hearts are all around
And they never let us down
Love unconditionally

You're my special Sagi girl
A unique and rare precious pearl
I'm addicted to your skin
And the soul that lies within
And here you're the heart of my world

In our bubble you can be
With me in safe security
And here you're the heart of my world
